LANGUAGE PERFECT WORLD CHAMPIONSHIPS!! All Years

Daily Notice by Ms Natalie Gastineau

The Language Perfect World Championships have started!

Australia is currently in the lead.

Campbell High Stats after day 1:

3rd for French (in the ACT)!

4th for Japanese (in the ACT)

These are great results, but there's still 6 days left so don't relax just yet.

Don't forget there are PRIZES for the students who earn the most points in each class and a CLASS PARTY for the top language class in the school.

The Japanese classrooms will be open during breaks for competing students.

Toilets locked during class time All Years

Daily Notice by Ms Caitlin Horan

Due to inappropriate use of the bathrooms during class time we have had no choice but the lock toilets during class to ensure we can provide a hygienic environment for those who need to use it. If you require the bathroom during class time you will need to come via the front office and sign out a key. The toilet in sick bay will also be available.

Thank you for your cooperation.

Steptember All Years

Daily Notice by Mr Justin Pronin

Registration for Steptember is now open! Please join the google classroom: o9zlf7 to sign up.

The goal of Steptember is to step 10,000 steps a day to raise funds and promote awareness for the Cerebral Palsy Alliance. Follow the prompts to create a page (team of 4 max) and receive a pedometer. Once you have your page you can log your steps and compete.

Good luck and get stepping!
