7 DRAMA

Teacher: Ben STICPEWICH

Course Description
Students are introduced to the work practices and processes that are integral to the successful development of dramatic presentation.

Learning Outcomes
- Demonstrates focus and self-discipline
- Demonstrates growing self-confidence, takes risks and accepts challenges
- Communicates effectively and expresses ideas clearly
- Participates as a supportive, encouraging audience
- Demonstrates resourcefulness in role play improvisation to presentation level
- Demonstrates basic understanding of performance skill for presentation
- Reflects on and evaluates dramatic experiences

Work Practice Outcomes
- Participates and contributes to the effectiveness of the class
- Brings the required materials to class
- Completes set tasks and meets work deadlines

Materials Required
- One page exercise book and a fully equipped pencil case (pens, pencils, scissors, ruler and glue stick)

Typical Homework
- Journal entries
- Learning lines/rehearsal

Assessment Items
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Due Date</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Class activities</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Major Practical Project 1</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Review</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>